Existing Difficulties in the Protestan Episcopal Church.

Hotsespan Cauren.

Editors of the Intelligencer:

How far the Episcopal Prayer Book is to be held responsible for the different shades of opinion and practice now prevailing in the English and American Churches, is a point upon which, at the present time, a few words might not come amiss:

THE PRAYER BOOK NEXT TO THE BIBLE Taking the prayer book in its general acope, next-to the Bible, and by comest of distinguished scholars and divines of all denominations, there is no production in that reflected honor upon the Government in the cammation of the Arbitrators who listened to his learned expositions who listened to his learned expositions of alternational law.

And now at the age of seventy-three dis American Shartsabury is sent abroad to manipulate our delicate relables and thousands will forever give thanks in the world to come for the purished of the purished to manipulate our delicate relables.

Now what does the truth of Christianity in such a case require? Certainly a reform, and not a compromise, as many of the Evangelical clergy seem to have concluded. If they have been "horn in the Episcopal Church," as they are sometimes tend to beat, does is follow that they must perforce swallow all sorts of monstrosities in order that they may die

New York Dry Goods Market.

New York Dry Goods Market.

New York, Dec. 29.—Jobbing branches were very quiet to-day. The market for cotton goods is steady and prices are strong. Transactions are very limited. Fancy cassimeres, light weights, are attracting the attention of clothing manufacturers and cloth jobbers, and some fair orders have been placed for future delivery. Kentucky jeans and cottonades are rather more active. Linens, white goods and embroideries are improving.
